CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS' SPRING ANNOUNCEMENT OF NEW PUBLICATIONS

STRONG HEARTS. BY GEORGE W. CABLE

Contents: The Entomologist—The Taxidermist—The Solitary

IN the stories comprising this book, which have been appropriately grouped under the title of "Strong Hearts," Mr. Cable returns to the field which gave him his best fame and his readers their greatest pleasure—New Orleans and its mingled races. "The Entomologist" has for its heroine one of those women who are especially Cable's creation,—one who belongs with the heroines of "The Grandissimes" and with "Madame Delphine." That story and "The Taxidermist" both have all the charm of "Old Creole Days" with added power; and "The Entomologist's" picture of a visitation of yellow fever, with all that it means to a Southern city, shows Mr. Cable's strength in an altogether new direction. 12mo, $1.25.

THE AMATEUR CRACKSMAN. BY E. W. HORNUNG

RAFFLES, the hero of Mr. Hornung's new story, is the most fascinating rascal of modern fiction. A gentleman born and bred, he enters upon an astonishing career of crime, bringing to every enterprise high spirits, an iron nerve, a buoyant wit, and a perfect ease and self-possession. The combination which he shows of resource and cunning, of patience and precision, of headwork and handiwork, stamps him as a veritable artist in crime, well worthy to rank with his counterpart, Sherlock Holmes. His adventures are described with infinite zest and delicious humor. 12mo, $1.25.

THE STOLEN STORY, AND OTHER NEWSPAPER STORIES.

BY JESSE LYNCH WILLIAMS

TO describe the life of the reporter as it is at the present day under the conditions which high-pressure journalism has made imperative, is the object of these stories. Just as Mr. Williams's "Princeton Stories" have come to be accepted as the true picture of the Princeton life of to-day, so will these stories take their place as the best expression of the modern newspaper man. There are seven stories in all. 12mo, with frontispiece, $1.25.

THE GREATER INCLINATION. BY EDITH WHARTON

MRS. WHARTON is a new writer of short stories, but one whose wit, subtlety and uncommon capacity in character-drawing readers of "The Pelican" and "The Muse's Tragedy" are already prepared to appreciate. Her refreshing lack of the "clever" pose and the essential charity behind her touches of outward cynicism are traits which give her work an especially attractive flavor. 12mo, $1.50.

IF I WERE A MAN. BY HARRISON ROBERTSON

The Story of a New-Southerner

THIS story of love and politics in Kentucky is the first novel from the pen of a writer already known to a considerable audience as the managing editor of The Louisville Courier-Journal and a story-teller of exceptional ability. The Ivory Series. 16mo, 75 cents.

SWEETHEARTS AND WIVES. BY ANNA A. ROGERS

Stories of Life in the Navy

VARIOUS episodes, romantic, sentimental, humorous and even tragic, in the lives of the wives and sweethearts of naval officers, form the subjects of this group of stories, several of which have found appreciative readers in the magazines. The Ivory Series. 16mo, 75 cents.

SCRIBNER'S SPRING ANNOUNCEMENT

IN CUBA WITH SHAFTER. BY LIEUT.-COL. J. D. MILEY

COLONEL MILEY was General Shafter's Chief of Staff during the Santiago Campaign. His book is neither critical nor controversial. It is an authoritative description, from the headquarters point of view, of the difficulties and obstacles which the United States troops encountered and of how they were overcome. The information is based on official documents and on the testimony of those who were cognizant of all that was going on behind the scenes as well as on the stage, and the book will undoubtedly be accepted as the authorized presentation of the campaign. It will contain several maps from official sources showing the country over which the campaign was waged and the positions of the opposing armies on successive days, together with a series of portraits of the general officers on the United States side who were engaged. With 10 portraits and 4 maps. 12mo, $1.50.

THE PORTO RICO OF TO-DAY. BY ALBERT G. ROBINSON

Pen Pictures of the People and the Country

IN his capacity as a newspaper correspondent Mr. Robinson travelled over the length and breadth of Porto Rico, studying the people and their manners and customs, the trade conditions, the agricultural and commercial situation, the means of transportation and communication, and other serious problems that await solution. The distinguishing note of his book is the clearness and sanity with which this detailed picture of the Porto Rico of to-day is presented. With maps and 24 illustrations. 12mo, $1.50.

ON THE SOUTH AFRICAN FRONTIER. BY WILLIAM H. BROWN

MR. BROWN'S book is a story of absorbingly interesting adventure. It was his fortune to be in Mashonaland and Matabeleland during the critical years of that colony, and to take part in the wars against the natives as well as to spend many months in big-game hunting, in gold-mining, in farming, and in other occupations. The narrative of his experiences gives a series of vivid pictures of frontier life in Africa, as entertaining as it is historically valuable. The book has thirty-two illustrations from the author's photographs and from drawings from sketches, together with two maps. Crown 8vo. In Press.

IN THE KLONDYKE. BY FREDERICK PALMER

Including an Account of a Winter's Journey to Dawson

MR. FREDERICK PALMER'S book on the Klondyke—which includes the story of a winter journey in, as well as of a winter residence, is a most intelligent and satisfactory account of a region and conditions as to which curiosity is still unsatisfied. Mr. Palmer has a cool head, the practiced observation both of the journalist and man of affairs, and no prejudices to gratify; and, beyond the story of the adventurous trip, which he tells capitably, he has put into his book more facts of real significance and has succeeded in conveying a better idea of a Klondyke mining town than has thus far been accessible elsewhere. The illustrations of his book, from his own photographs, are particularly spirited and attractive. With many illustrations, 12mo, $1.50.

A TEXAS RANGER. BY N. A. JENNINGS

Being a Truthful Narrative of the Life and Adventures of a Young Man on the Rio Grande Frontier

THIS is the true story of surprising adventures on the Mexican border by a young man who enlisted in the early eighties in a company of Texas Rangers. It is told with the spirit of a young man who enjoyed the adventure for the sake of its hair-breadth escapes, and there is not a page in it which is without its incident—amusing, dramatic, pathetic or tragic. The book is as thrilling as a border romance, and in addition is a hitherto unwritten record of a body of troops who were the prototypes of the Rough Riders. 12mo. In Press.

FIRST AID IN ILLNESS AND INJURY. BY MAJ. J. E. PILCHER, M.D.

THE sixth edition of Major Pilcher's manual has been revised in many particulars in the light of the first-aid work in the recent war between the United States and Spain, and in its present form is thoroughly abreast of the latest methods of procedure. With 175 illustrations. Leather, 12mo, $2.00 net.

For his biographical studies are etched in deep and strong lines, while his analyses of the works of these composers go to the very heart of the subject and reveal a breadth of knowledge and a sympathetic appreciation of the point of view and aim of the composer as rare as they are delightful. The author's style is both vigorous and individual. 12mo, $1.50.

THE HISTORY OF YIDDISH LITERATURE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. BY LEO WIENER

Instructor in the Slavic Languages at Harvard University

AN essay in an entirely new field. Yiddish, Jüdisch, or Judeo-German, the language, though in a baser form, of the New York Ghetto, grew up originally among the Jews who, driven out of Germany in the middle ages, settled in Russia, Poland, and Lithuania, and it is still the speech of a great population in the Slavic countries and of nearly half a million in the United States, most of these in New York City alone. From the scattered repositories of Yiddish in this century Mr. Wiener has collected examples of a genuine literature, especially strong in poetry and the drama. The book, apart from its interest for students of language, throws light on some interesting sources of modern Russian letters, and in its social aspects embodies valuable information for the discerning philanthropist. 8vo. $2.00 net.

HISTORY OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE

Vol. I. The Babylonian, Persian
and Greek Periods

BY CHARLES FOSTER KENT, Ph.D.

The little understood epochs treated in this volume are in many respects the most important of Biblical history, for they not only witnessed the birth and development of Judaism, but are now also regarded the background of the majority of the Old Testament books. Scholars who have reviewed the volume in manuscript, agree that it surpasses all earlier work by Professor Kent, as well as previous treatments of the periods by others. 12mo, $1.25 net.

THE BASES OF MYSTIC KNOWLEDGE

BY E. RÉCÉJAC

Translated from the French by Sara Carr Upton

In this work the subject of mysticism has, for the first time, been treated from a scientific and psychological point of view. The book supplies an authoritative critique of a knowledge acquired through mystic experience, and the chapters on the Mystic Consciousness, Symbols and Symbolism, and "The Heart," form a dignified and able treatise on what is really vital and enduring in a subject hitherto largely relegated to the vaguely ignorant or the charlatan. Crown 8vo, $2.50.

DEMOCRACY:

A Study of Government

BY JAMES H. HYSLOP, Ph.D.
of Columbia University

The present work is an attack by a native American upon Democracy, without accepting Monarchy as an alternative. It is not merely a destructive piece of writing, but is an attempt at a thorough reconstruction of our political institutions. The author insists that the issue cannot longer be evaded and squarely attacks democratic institutions as the first step in drawing attention to the problem before us; and he here proposes a substitute or modification of the present form of government without favoring a reactionary policy. The work is destined to arouse wide discussion, especially in view of the bearing of its arguments upon the new policy of territorial expansion. Crown 8vo, $1.50.

Of special value are the survey of moral philosophies from Greek times down to the present, and the discussion of modern sociological and political applications. 8vo. In Press.

Now in its Twentieth Thousand

THE CUBAN AND PORTO RICAN CAMPAIGNS

BY RICHARD HARDING DAVIS

"NEVER has a war been reported as this has been, and never has a history been written like this, by one who saw it all—while the blood was hot and the memory vivid."
—New York World.

"Mr. Davis is always a capital reporter. What he sees comes to us as something fresh, even if we have seen it before. And this valuable quality makes his pictures of the army and navy, and the battle scenes in which he himself moved, remarkably vivid and readable. His story never flags for a moment in interest."—Review of Reviews.

"This is much the most vivid and readable of all the books on the war that have appeared so far, and it is full of life and color and incidents that show the sort of stuff of which our soldiers were made. Not even the multitudes of interesting pictures in the book can distract attention from the text, which is saying a good deal. To the very last line, the book is written with a keenness, a vivacity, a skill and a power to thrill and to leave an impression which mark a decided advance over anything that even Mr. Davis has written heretofore."—Boston Herald. With 117 illustrations from photographs and with 4 maps. 12mo, $1.50.

OUR NAVY IN THE WAR WITH SPAIN. BY JOHN R. SPEARS

Author of "The History of Our Navy"

"A THOROUGH, conscientious effort to give the reader the fruits of painstaking research and intelligent, impartial analysis. . . . Mr. Spears's volume is so far superior to every other publication on the war that comparison with others is a waste of space, for this book will last as an authority on the navy's work in the conflict when contemporaneous publications are forgotten."—New York Mail and Express.

"His story of the action of July 3 is superb. It is the most lucid and comprehensive description which has yet been laid before the American people, and it is made all the more valuable by the official chart of the ships' courses which accompanies it. . . . Mr. Spears's book is a spirited and admirable piece of literary workmanship."—Boston Journal. With 125 illustrations from photographs and with charts and diagrams. 12mo, $2.00.

COMMERCIAL CUBA. BY WILLIAM J. CLARK

A BOOK FOR BUSINESS MEN

"THIS is easily the best book on Cuba that has so far been published. It is described on the title page as a book for business men, but it is also a volume for any one who wishes to inform himself about the present condition of affairs in the island. It is not a compilation of other men's ideas, but an entirely original work by a man of great ability and one who had exceptional advantages for observation and research. It is, indeed, a noble volume, replete with information and with the insight into the subject which makes information valuable."—Philadelphia Evening Telegraph. With 8 maps, 7 plans of cities, 40 full-page illustrations, and a Commercial Directory of Cuba. Large 8vo, $4.00.

YESTERDAYS IN THE PHILIPPINES. BY JOSEPH E. STEVENS

"WITH the observant and indulgent eye of an old traveller, Mr. Stevens has seen everything in the islands worth seeing, and has described what he has seen in a most interesting manner. All is set forth by the narrator in a breezy, chatty way that would be entertaining under any circumstance."—Philadelphia Evening Telegraph. With 32 full-page illustrations from photographs by the author. Ninth thousand. 12mo, $1.50.

THE STORY OF THE REVOLUTION

BY HENRY CABOT LODGE

"IT is a brilliant piece of historical writing. The narrative is so full of life that not only all lovers of history, but all lovers of stirring stories, are swept along by its current. Mr. Lodge's volumes are likely to prove the most popular historical work of the year."

—The Outlook.

"This book will probably take rank as the most vivid and interesting of all the records of our great struggle with England. It is written in what is still the favorite fashion in historical literature—that fashion of swift and picturesque writing which was introduced by Macaulay. Mr. Lodge employs the same methods of massing effects, of illuminating the particular fact he is relating by side lights from the moods of the contemporaneous world, by calling up analogies from the past, by forestalling the judgment of the future."—New York Herald. With 200 illustrations by Pyle, Yohn, Chapman, Thulstrup, Clark and others. Two volumes, 8vo, $6.00.

"One of the Ten Best Books of the Year."—The Outlook.

THE WORKERS—THE WEST. BY WALTER A. WYCKOFF

AN EXPERIMENT IN REALITY

"THE book is alive with the vitality of actual experience. As a contribution to the literature of labor economics its principal value lies in its stimulating quality. No man or woman can read this narrative and not be awakened to conditions which have a profound influence on the welfare of this country. It is a book that no one interested in the problems of humanity can afford to leave unread."—Brooklyn Daily Eagle. With 32 full-page illustrations by W. R. Leigh. 12mo, $1.50.

A CHRONICLE OF RECONSTRUCTION

"THE foremost place among American novels of the season must be given to Mr. Page's 'Red Rock.' . . . When one has finished it, he finds in his mind a living community of acting, breathing and vital men and women; and that is saying 'Red Rock' is the work of a man of genuine artistic power. It is a contribution to our literature because it is real, and because it deals with a very dramatic period in American history."—The Outlook. With illustrations by B. West Clinedinst. Twenty-fifth thousand. 12mo, $1.50.

REMBRANDT. BY WALTER C. LARNED

"THIS is a charming romance in which art and love and adventure are interwoven with the great names of Art. The style of the story as a literary product is elegant, and the plot so easy and simple that the reader at all times seems to feel that he is reading of real people and not romance. The constant side lights introduce the reader to the home lives of these interesting people."—Chicago Inter-Ocean. With 8 full-page illustrations. 12mo, $1.50.

WILD ANIMALS I HAVE KNOWN. BY E. S. THOMPSON

"MR. THOMPSON is a naturalist who sees in the furred and feathered world something more than a basis for the study of comparative anatomy or the distribution of species; and all that he writes is animated by a rare sympathy. He has produced a fascinating book, and one that can be read and re-read with growing pleasure. . . . It is a pleasure to come across such a unique volume clad in so worthy a dress."—New York Commercial Advertiser. With 200 illustrations from drawings by the author. Seventh thousand. Historical and Archaeological questions, as well as questions of Biblical Theology, are included in the plan of the Commentary, but not Practical or Homiletical Exegesis. LUTHERAN COMMENTARY, THE.

By Scholars of the Lutheran Church in the United States, under the editorial charge of HENRY EYSTER JACOBS, D.D., LL.D.
Is being published after extensive correspondence and consultation between the general editor and Lutheran scholars throughout the country. It comprises thirteen volumes of about 400 pages each,
and incorporates the text of the revised version. The work fills an intermediate position between scientific and popular exposition. It does not enter into the discussion of critical questions, but seeks to present results. It is adapted to the wants of pastors, and is especially valuable to intelligent laymen and Sunday-school teachers. Per volume, cloth.
